VOLUME XXXII. NUMBER 50.

MARK HANNA's convention denouncing the trusts, reminds one of Lucifer rebuking sin.

DOWN the Gold Trust and you down Expansion, Imperialism, and all the other heresies that now threaten the life of the Republic.

D. B. HENDERSON, who will likely succeed Tom Reed as Speaker, is opposed to a large standing army, doesn't endorse the war in the Philippines and doesn't believe in imperialism. He's a traitor. How can the Hanna party exalt him?

WITH the Declaration of Independence an exploded idealism, Geo. Washington a back number, and Tom Jefferson a melancholy reminiscence, Progression progresses apace. Room for militarism, benevolent assimilation, and ultimate Empire!

THE plutocratic newspapers are preparing to make a big show of Admiral Dewey when he comes home. Every true American admires the man who smashed the Spanish fleet at Manila. Heartfelt pride in the achievements of the heroes of the late war is felt by all patriots; but this show business is an old-world humbug.

THE people of St. Kitts—a British possession—have tired of the rule of Britannia and ask to be annexed to the United States. But in this instance Uncle Samuel will prudently curb his new-found craze for Expansion. Benevolent assimilation is a tender plant not fitted to the rude shock of contention with a first-class power.

THE action of the Cuban soldiers in refusing to give up the arms they had used in defense of their liberty against Spanish despotism is incomprehensible to the American patriot of the Mark Hanna stamp. What! Not give up their rusty old guns for $3,000,000 of bright, sweet, glittering gold! Down with the niggers! They talk of self-government!!

DRYFUS is reported to have been "radiant with joy" upon receiving official notification that he was once more a free man with permission to again wear the uniform of a French officer. His refusal to resume the uniform shows the spirit of a man conscious of innocence. His persecutors who have disgraced the French army will now taste of the dish they had prepared for their victim. May it be made scalding hot.

THE Ohio Republicans held a State convention the other day and denounced trusts, just like they used to denounce the demonetization of silver. But they'll evolve—don't be alarmed, they'll evolve, and presently we shall hear the bosses and the followers yelling themselves hoarse for the beneficent consolidation of "the business interests." Not only that, but they'll be swearing that they always were in favor of progressive combination and resolute against the debasing of capitalistic power.

A SHORT time ago the thick-and-thin organs delightedly pointed to the "rise in wages" to the glass workers. Last Saturday the news came that the big plants of the Trust in Indiana would close down one month earlier than usual, throwing 30,000 men out of employment. At $1.50 a day this means $1,200,000 lost to the wage earners in the glass business in Indiana alone. This makes quite a hole in the "ten-per-cent. advance" the big and little papers have been parading as evidence of McHanna prosperity.

THE Post-Dispatch utters a truth which, while it ought to penetrate the thickest skull and set the brain to right-thinking upon the trust question, is also a clincher against the possibility of general prosperity under the conditions now prevailing: "Under the trusts the facilities for reducing wages will be greatly increased. With these great combinations fully established, and having everything their own way, does any reasoning mind suppose that they will pay any more than they shall choose to expend?"

A FEW days after the Tobacco Trust had absorbed the Liggett-Meyers Company, a drummer who had traveled for that firm for twelve years at $125 a month, was "called in." At the local office of the Trust company he was told that his services were no longer needed; he was discharged and a 60-dollar man took his place. Watkins, another drummer well known here, was also given his walking papers, as were several hundred others. But the Goldberg papers don't note these evidences of prosperity and increase in wages.

WE see by the Ohio platform that the Republicans whipped Spain and freed Cuba; that "the people can safely commit the solution of the momentous problem of the future of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines" to the hands of the Republican party; that Ring out the false Ring in the true"

We bring to you the new and true from the piney forests of Norway

DR. BELL'S Pine-Tar-Honey

Nature's most natural remedy, improved by science to a Pleasant, Permanent, Positive Cure for coughs, colds and all inflamed surfaces of the Lungs and Bronchial Tubes.

The sore, weary cough-worn Lungs are exhilarated; the microbe-bearing mucus is cut out; the cause of that tickling is removed, and the inflamed membranes are healed and soothed so that there is no inclination to cough.

SOLD BY ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS
Bottles Only, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 Sizes
BE SURE YOU GET
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

I AM 88 YEARS OLD, and never used any remedy equal to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It gives quick and permanent relief in grip as well as coughs and colds. It makes weak lungs strong.—Mrs. M. A. McCalla, Paducah, Ky.

"the carrying of our foreign commerce" by American ships is going to be resumed right now, etc., etc. It might be asked, whose policy was it that swept the American merchant marine from the seas? But that would be impertinent and savor of copperheadism. Hurrah for Hanna and virtue!

THE "Lady Castellane"—she was plain Anna Gould in mudsill America—took a hand in the Royalist demonstration at the Paris races last Sunday. President Loubet was assaulted by the agents of the class which mourns the dead-and-gone era of monarchical despotism and rule by "divine right." The shrill tenor of the "Lady's" voice gave its full power to the cry, "Down with the Republic!" Having seen the shadow, she hankers for the substance of royalty. But, thank God! there are millions of true American women who couldn't be induced to trade places with her. They are noble by birth-right and queens by common consent—better and sweeter than the kingly manufactured article.

AKBAR was a Mohammedan brave who made himself famous killing "Christian dogs." In the year 689 Akbar stood on the western shore of Africa and looked toward the setting sun. This is what he said:

"Great God! If my course were not stopped by this sea, I would still go on to the unknown regions of the West, preaching the unity of thy holy name, and putting to the sword all rebellious nations who worshipped any other gods but Thee."

Now listen to a Christian brave, the Rev. Wayland Hoyt, who occupies a Philadelphia pulpit:

"Christ is the solution for the difficulty regarding expansion. The only thing we can do is to thrash the Philippine natives until they understand who we are. I believe every bullet sent, every cannon shot, means righteousness. When we have conquered anarchy, then is the time to send the Christ there."

Akbar, the Mohammedan, proposed to introduce the saving truth to the infidels before he put them to the sword, giving them a chance of heaven. Hoyt, the Christian, would shoot them first and then send them the Bible.—Post-Dispatch.

THE REGISTER has always had an instinctive repugnance to Snivel Service Reform as an aping of the custom of countries where some men are born booted and spurred to ride other men ready saddled for the service of their "superiors." But it has still greater contempt for the man or party that, to serve a present purpose, hypocritically denounces the "spoils system" and, after that purpose is attained, ignores the pledges given to the Miss Nancys of this great Republic. Lately the McHanna administration took from five thousand office holders the protectingegis of the lauded Chinese system, to make room for strikers who are expected to get in good work in the coming campaign; to assist in securing a nomination for the man from Canton. The Republican platform of 1896—the latest national Republican catch-trap—says:

"The Civil Service law was placed on the statute book by the Republican party, which has always sustained it, and we renew our repeated declarations that it shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced, and extended wherever practicable."

This enunciation was lauded to the echo by Republican speakers and papers; now, just watch and see how many of them denounce McKinley—we beg pardon: Mark Hanna's—overturning of the whitened political sepulchre!

A St. Louis Letter.

Lorenz A. Seitz, Pharmacy graduate and Vice-President Alumni Association St. Louis College of Pharmacy, appeared in his second speech before the Alumni Association on board steamer City of Providence, the Pharmasudical Graduating class excursion and outing 1899.

Philip Walters has accepted a clerical position with the Southern Railroad Co. Philip makes a good clerk. Mrs. F. J. Killalee and little son, Freddie, accompanied by Miss Minnie Donovan, left last week via Chicago & Northwestern for a few weeks' outing at Lake Minnetonka.

Albert Trauericht, of the Terminal U. S., is oftentimes seen at Forest Park Highlands. Albert likes the haunts of the wild woods.

Noye Logan, Superintendent C. E. Hiltz Shoe Co., presented his many patrons with a souvenire advertising C. E. Hiltz Shoe Co. Cut Price shoes. Noye is an expert shoe man.

Mike Hanlon ventured across the big bridge Sunday to see the incoming excursionists, and to shake hands with old friends. He also took in the suburban minstrels.

Reverend L. C. Wernert, of Arcadia, Mo., was in St. Louis May 31st, where he responded to the toast "Our Ursulines" at the Fifteenth Anniversary of the founding of the Ursuline Convent. At the Alumni of the Academy at 12th & Russell avenue Mass was solemnized at 10 o'clock by Arch Bishop Cain, assisted by Rt. Rev. H. Muehlisen, V. G., and Rt. Rev. J. J. Hennessey, D. D., formerly pastor at Iron Mountain, Mo., now Bishop of Wichita, Kan. There were over sixty-five fathers in attendance. An elaborate banquet followed. The tables were laden with choicest cut flowers and the Academy was resplendent with evergreen and golden ribbon. In the afternoon an entertainment was given by the pupils of the Convent. "Our Ursulines" were most beautifully rendered, not forgetting the beautiful Arcadia Valley.

C. S. Killalee, the popular conductor on the Midnight Special of Grand Ave. Ry., appeared in another boxing contest at Turners Hall, in North St. Louis, in which he was awarded 1st prize, a beautiful gold watch. I'll bet Charley's sweetheart feels proud, as it is a lady's watch. GUESS WHO.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. MARY A. BEARD, Claremore, Ark. Sold by Geo. C. Jacobs, druggist.

Only a Faded Peony.

It was only a tiny flower
That came from a far-off land,
It's only a faded blossom
Plucked by a tender hand.
It's only a Peony from Arcadia Valley
But it crossed the briny sea
It was the last token from mother to me.
The message received by our Captain
While I, at duty stand,
But I did not forget poor mother
Far off in America's land.
How gently it was delivered
With out-stretched hands,
The boys in blue ever so true
Bowed each a humble head
The Captain said, your mother is dead,
For this I am sorry, too.
The boys of the Sixth will forever stick
On all that is faithful and true.
The boys all said, we are sorry for Ed
That his mother is dead, because he is true.
The Battery's Sixth will forever stick
On the Philippine soil of glue.
Ed knew the joy of a mother's love
The Peony he held from the town
Bidding farewell to the Stars and Stripes
As he, on the gray sea, knelt down.
Then raising his head, proudly he said—
Why! Fred's with mother in town,
If she be dead, I know she is buried at Fredericktown.

(In memory of Mrs. J. H. Killalee, who was buried at Fredericktown, Missouri, May 19th, 1899.)
